Where to turn?

Larry Borins, MSW, RSW provides individual and family therapy for children and adolescents consumed with online gaming and "screen time" obsessions. In many cases, gamers find acceptance, respect, and recognition through the game, and the online character replaces relationships that are missing in the gamer's life. Larry offers Parenting groups on setting limits for screen time "addictions". www.mindfultherapist.ca or (416) 546-5511
